

NSM Logs and Reports Overview

IDP devices generate logs about device status based on built-in criteria and about security events based on the security policy notification settings. These logs are automatically sent to the NSM GUI server and can be viewed in the NSM log viewer.

IDP administration includes the following log-related tasks:

- Viewing device status, logs, and reports
- Configuring log suppression, if you want to reduce the number of identical log files

Related Topics

- Viewing Logs
- Configuring Syslog Collection (NSM Procedure)

Published: 2009-08-20