

Juniper Networks Executive Briefings: Engineering Simplicity

Welcome to the Juniper Networks Executive Briefing Center

At Juniper, we are dedicated to uncovering new ideas and creating the innovations that help our customers do what they do, better, and we aspire to show you how we can move your business forward. Please join us at our Executive Briefing Center for a customized conversation addressing your business priorities around some of the biggest challenges facing the industry today:

- The Role of the Network in Maximizing the Cloud
- Planning, Scaling, and Automating the Data Center
- Creating Value by Delivering New Services Faster
- New Approaches to Data and Network Security

In our briefings we'll talk with you—not at you—in a collaborative exchange of discovery and understanding that will uncover the best approaches and innovative technologies to help you reach your goals.

And we'll tell you our story too, sharing lessons we've learned along the way. Juniper IT addresses many of the same challenges faced by our customers every day using our own technologies to create the agility, capacity, security, capabilities, and lower costs needed by every business organization.

An Experience Custom Designed for You

Your briefing at the Juniper EBC is a fully supported event that includes:

- Customized agendas focused on your challenges and business goals
- Personalized discussions with executive leaders and technology experts
- Live demos to help you visualize Juniper Networks solutions
- Fully catered meals designed by a professional chef
- Onsite concierge services to fine tune your travel experience

We're looking forward to designing a customized experience where we get to know you and your business goals and challenges. And you'll meet our team—the Juniper innovators who work every day, delivering the strategies, architectures, and solutions that enable customers to take on and achieve their business imperatives by deploying the highest performance networks in the world.

Contact your account manager today to find out how a visit to the Juniper Executive Briefing Center can make a difference for your business.

About the Juniper EBC

The Juniper Networks Executive Briefing Center was designed with your needs in mind. We've created a relaxing and inspirational environment that promotes problem solving and productivity.

Our award-winning flagship EBC is located at the Juniper Networks global headquarters in Sunnyvale, California. We're just minutes away from San Francisco International and Mineta International in San Jose, two major airports offering convenient connections to most major cities with direct flights to Europe and Asia. There is a wide selection of hotels within minutes of our campus.

We offer a variety of well-appointed executive briefing spaces to accommodate groups of all sizes and easy access WiFi to help you stay connected. Interpretation services are also available so you can enjoy the briefing in your local language.

Meals are served in-room or can be taken in any of our separate dining rooms or open dining spaces. And when there's a break, stop in at our exclusive executive Café to enjoy ice cream, gelato, a custom coffee or espresso.
