

Network Information Collector with Enterprise Service Portals

You can improve the performance of service activation for an enterprise service portal by implementing the NIC in your network. In this case, the enterprise service portal uses the NIC to locate the SAE managing a particular session. If you do not configure a NIC for your network, the enterprise service portal locates the managing SAE by polling all the SAEs in the network.

Related Topics ■ Locating Subscriber Management Information

