

Configuring a System Login Announcement (SRC CLI)

---

A system login announcement appears after the user logs in. By default, no login announcement is displayed.

To configure a system login announcement:

- At the [edit system login] hierarchy level, add the announcement statement.

```
[edit system login]
user@host# set announcement text
```

If the announcement text contains any spaces, enclose it in quotation marks.

