

Reloading Interface Classification Scripts

---

To reload the interface classification scripts from the directory, and apply the result of the interface classification changes to the router:

```
user@host> request sae load interface-classification
```

