

Moving an Object

---

After creating an object, you can move it from the side pane if needed (above or below another object).

To move an object:

1. In the side pane, click the object.
2. In the Move to list in the main pane, select where you want to move the object, and click OK.

The object appears in the desired location in the side pane.

