

to varying the network access speed. The subscriber can actively and instantly request access to the service-controlled area by selecting items on Web pages generated by the SAE. Selecting these items triggers the SAE to instantly reconfigure the subscriber's IP interface on the router.

The SAE communicates with JUNOSe routers through COPS messages.

The SAE communicates with JUNOS routing platforms through BEEP messages.

- Related Topics
- Summary of the Login Process
  - PPP Subscriber Login and Service Activation
  - Automatic Activation at Login
  - Adding Residential Subscribers (SRC CLI)