

Starting the SAE (SRC CLI)

You must configure licenses before you start the SAE. When you start the SAE, the software verifies that a valid license is available. If no license is found, the SAE does not start.

To start the SAE:

- From operational mode, enable the SAE.

```
user@host> enable component sae
Check license: OK
Starting sae: may take a few minutes...
```

- Related Topics
- Starting the SAE with the C-Web Interface
 - Stopping the SAE (SRC CLI)
 - Initially Configuring the SAE
 - For information about monitoring SAE data with the SRC CLI, see Viewing Information About the Directory Blacklist with the CLI
 - Obtaining an SRC License

Published: 2009-09-25